To Whom It May concern,

I'm thrilled to write this letter of support for the outstanding video production "Socks" Using "one" young woman's experience as conceived by the playwright and film producer to highlight a problem that affects millions of people worldwide is a powerful way to raise awareness of human trafficking.

Since I am the founder and CEO of the Renee Jones Empowerment Center, I have had more than 20 years to observe how awareness is one of the most potent weapons in the arsenal against human trafficking since it helps to save lives.

I feel honored that we will be able to present the "Socks" video production to the community and other organizations fighting human trafficking on January 11, 2024, as a part of our Human Trafficking Awareness Day Forum.

We are also excited to keep working with Mary Weems to find new methods to engage and reach new audiences and provide them with this effective awareness tool.

Please feel free to get in touch with me at the numbers listed below if you have any queries or want to discuss "Socks" in more depth.

Sincerely,

Renee Jones
President & CEO
